

1-Does hope change us? If no, why not. If yes, how?

2-Going from a "slave to sin" to a "slave to righteousness"-- is that change a contradiction of terms?

3-What was your life like before your conversion?

4-What was your life like after your conversion? Were there any changes?

5-If you were to describe your "spiritual heart" (soul), would it be stone, granite, clay, broken, apathetic, weak as water, compassionate, full of mercy, forgiving, hopeful?

6-How does Satan and his "minions" (servile followers) seek to destroy your hope?

7-1 Kings 19:18 has God telling the prophet Elijah, who was hiding in a cave throwing himself a "pity party," that there were 7000 followers who had not bowed their knees before the false god Baal. Does that story give you hope during troubled times?

8-The lesson today said "how will people hear/read the GOOD NEWS unless someone tells them or provides them with Bibles/religious resources. Do you have a mission you support and if so, why that particular mission? For a Google research, you might enjoy Brother Andrew and his ministry behind the once famous Iron Curtain.

9-What does Psalm 37:5-6 mean to you?

10-What does Jude 24-25 mean to you.